

LAECA 55th Annual Conference - November 2021

The Louisiana Early Childhood Association (LAECA) is pleased to announce that its 55th Annual Conference will take place both in-person and virtually this fall. The in-person conference will take place at the Randolph Riverfront Center in Alexandria, LA on Friday, November 5 and Saturday, November 6, 2021 with pre-registration from 4-7 p.m. and pre-conference sessions from 6-7 p.m. on Thursday, November 4. Asynchronous virtual sessions will be available online from Tuesday, November 9 through Tuesday, November 23, 2021.

The theme of this year's conference is "Unity in Our Early Childhood Community," and the conference will offer Pathways-certified continuing education hours for participants. The keynote speakers are Merlyna Valentine and Toni Bennett.

Registration and payments can be submitted online by clicking here or printed and mailed by clicking here. Conference registration is open Monday, August 2 through Wednesday, October 20. For group registration, please contact LAECA Business Manager Chris LeJeune at laeca12@gmail.com.

Conference fees are $100 for LAECA members, $150 for non-members, and $50 for students. The conference fee is all-inclusive and includes admission to all days of the in-person conference with lunch as well as access to the virtual component. There is no separate price for either the in-person or the virtual conference only. Those registering after Wednesday, October 20 will incur a $25 late fee.
